The translation of this sefer is dedicated in beloved memory of

Moshe Wiederman

משה אפרים בן יהודה צבי הירש ע"ה

Moshe's purity, modesty and absolute selflessness inspired so many. With his ever-outstretched arm, and his ever-present smile, Moshe gave assistance to all in need, and warmth and friendship to all who surrounded him.

Moshe served and loved his Creator from the depths of his precious neshama. Though his years were too few, he spent many of his days searching to fulfill his inner-longing for kedusha and d'veikas to Hashem.

Moshe began finding his answers within the words and wisdom of the sefer Bilvavi Mishkan Evneh; a copy of Bilvavi was found with his belongings when he passed.

It is our hope and prayer that this translation of Bilvavi will create a stronger d'veikus between those who study it and their Creator, and an eternal aliya and nachas ruach to Moshe's neshama.
